AMERICA DEMANDS THEIR RECALL TO GERMANY

Immediate recall of Captain Karl Roy-Ed, German Naval attaché, and Captain Franz von Papen, German Mill-tary Attaché, because of "Improper activities in connection with mival and military affairs," has been demanded by the United States of the German government, according to an amountement made at the State Department. Mr. Lansing, Secretary of State, made the amountement following a conference with Count von Bernsonff, the German Ambassador. Safe conduct for the Attachés across the seas to Germany is assured by the United States, it is understood that Count von Bernstorff informed Mr. Lansing of the readiness of his government to recall the two members of its Embassy staff. Both officers are now in New York, and they probably will leave the United States within a few days.
